FLAG TO BE IMPRESSIVE

Says There is Nothing Cheap
About the Wainwright
School Board.

Editor Star,

Dear Sir:

Will you allow me space in your paper to protest against your criticism in last week's Star with regard to the new flag staff at the school and defend the action of the school board.

You refer to the standard as an unnecessary expense. You object to the expenditure of $95, yet you howled your head off to get the town to spend thousands of dollars to build a skating rink. Surely a man so generous in his views, and so sporty in his actions might have spared the school board the trouble of having to defend their actions in spending $95 on a flag staff.

The place suggested by you did not appeal to the big, broad minded, patriotic feeling of Chairman Dawson and the rest of the board. They wanted to erect a flag staff that would be a credit to the town, in a suitable place for the imposing ceremony arranged for the flag raising day and prize distribution on the opening of the new session.

It was impossible to arrange the singing of the national anthem and the "Maple Leaf Forever" on the roof of the school. Moreover, the board wants the flag to play an important part in school life, to be impressive and make the impression lasting.

$95 for a flag standard. Just think of it! Nothing cheap about the Wainwright school board. They are not the kind to put up with a small flag on top of the building. No, sir! A big standard with a big flag for them. I honestly believe the editor of the Star will be the only citizen in town who will begrudge the price. You are strangely out of harmony with the proceedings with your criticism, sarcasm and jibes.

You also suggest that the board should have waited a little longer, moved cautiously and not have erected it until they had more money. In this matter, the board has waited too long; waited so long that the Sons of England Society were about to wait on the board with a request that the British flag be put in evidence at the school. As to the finances of the school board, the money stringency has been passed with flying colours and the board is now in a position to meet their liabilities in full, with enough left to pay for the erection of a flag staff that will add dignity and grace to that grand old flag which represents so much to the patriotic mind and every loyal subject.

Yours truly,
H. C. King, Trustee

GEOLOGISTS OF WORLD REPUTE STOP OFF HERE

Party 100 Strong Composed of Men of Many Foreign Nations.

A distinguished party of geologists from all over the world, who are now returning east after visiting points of interest through the west, stopped off here for a few hours on Sunday and made the trip to the national reserve to view the largest herd of buffalo in the world.

Quite a number were at the station when the special train pulled in to see the big gathering of geologists from France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Japan and other countries, but were disappointed, for they left the train at the crossing west of here, from which point they were taken by auto and hackback to the park. During their western trip, the party has visited practically all the mines which are in operation. It was expected that they would arrive here on a week day, when their opinion of Wainwright's gas claims could be secured. The party proceeded over the G. T. P. for Cochrane.

IS IMPROVING STEADILY

Mr. Matthew Greer, who was taken to Edmonton last week, suffering from kidney trouble, underwent an operation on Friday and is doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Beaton, of Betenage, N. D., arrived here on Saturday last to visit at the home of Mr. Jos. McClellan, Gilt Edge.

START A BANK ACCOUNT IN THE BABY'S FAVOUR

If You Have a Fat Baby Less than One Year Old and are a Subscriber to the STAR, Read What is Printed
Below. It will Interest You.

WHEN you think of the STAR, think of the fat baby who will win the ten dollar gold piece at the fair on September 19th. All babies under one year of age are eligible to compete, providing their parents are subscribers to the STAR. They must be on the fair grounds between 2 and 3 p. m. on fair day, and independent judges will select the prize winner.

Remember the STAR and fat babies go hand in hand. There will be no partiality, and all mothers have the opportunity of starting the child's bank account with a ten spot.

REPORTED FIND OF 30 HIDES OF STOLEN CATTLE

Evidence Goes to Show that Cattle Thieves are Yet at Large.

AROUND BATTLE RIVER

Every Cattle Raiser Has Eye
Out for Those Guilty of Offense.

Reports from points north-west of here are to the effect that cattle thieves are still at large and that no fewer than thirty hides have been discovered this summer. It is stated that the hides have been found along the banks of the Battle River, some of them being in a decayed state.

From all appearances, those who have already been detected and found guilty of this offence are not only transgressors and farmers residing along the river are keeping a sharp eye out for the guilty parties. No suspicions are entertained as to who the thieves are, yet every precaution is being taken to apprehend them, when they will be brought to justice on an offence which is altogether too common in this locality.

The example made of Luff, and indeed of Betty for the offence on which he was accused, has apparently made little difference to those who are still practising the same illegal work. It is high time, cattle thieves were put a final stop to in this district.

CLEAR OUT LAST YEAR'S GRAIN BEFORE PRICE TAKES A DROP

Farmers Holding Old Grain and Especially Wheat Are Advised to Sell

Farmers are advised to clear out their last year's grain from their granaries, not only to make room for the new, but to secure better prices now than they will be able to secure later. Between now and the end of the threshing season, prices are liable to take a sudden drop. These should make an effort to dispose of it at the local flour mill.

Mrs. A. J. Law left here on Sunday for Biggar, where she will spend a few days. Her husband is running out of that point.

VOTER'S LIST IS CREDIT TO TOWN

Compilation is Made on Better
Plan than Former Lists.

The voters list has been completed by Secretary Kenny and is open for inspection in his office in the town hall. The compilation of such a voters list as the secretary has completed involved no end of work, yet there may be a few whose names do not appear thereon. It contains the names and lots on which ratepayers are eligible to vote and applications to have names placed on the list must be made before November 1st.

HEALTH BOARD BRINGS ABOUT IMPROVEMENTS

No Fault Can Now be Found in Work the Board is Doing.

CITIZENS GET ORDERS.

Medical Health Officer Little
Submitted Lengthy Report.

An important meeting of the board of health was held on Friday last in the council chamber, when considerable business was transacted. It was called on the request of Medical Health Officer Dr. Little, who submitted his report on the sanitary conditions of the congested areas of the town.

The report dealt to some length with the condition of Chinese laundries, where for sometime past they have been permitted to throw their dirty water on the ground and otherwise pollute the surroundings. Mah Sam, the First Avenue laundryman, was ordered to have his premises cleaned up and the henney, under his building, done away with. The hotels and restaurants were ordered to provide suitable receptacles for all solid refuse matter on their places of business and not allow it to remain exposed on the top of the ground or cess pools.

One matter, which would if permitted cause trouble and perhaps infection, was that of unsanitary privies and outhouses. Several business men were ordered to have these closets repaired or removed at once. Dr. Little as medical health officer, in which capacity he does not aim to make sanitary inspections, is to be congratulated on the steps he has taken to improve the sanitary condition of the town.

Several recent meetings of the board of health would lead one to believe that the board is not the dead body it once was. The action of its members of late is very commendable and in the event of a continuation of this, no criticism will result from either ratepayers or citizens.

MAY START STEAM LAUNDRY

Messrs. D. Leitch and W. P. Penby, of Guelph, Ont., are visiting their friend, W. J. McLean. They are looking over the country with a view to locating and the probability is that they will remain in this vicinity. It is intimated that Mr. Leitch has plans in view towards starting a steam laundry here in the early spring.

Remember the auction sale of horses, cattle, implements etc., at the farm of T. E. Dolan, south of town, on Saturday next.

PLANS BEING DRAWN AND START ON POST OFFICE IS EXPECTED

Corner Main St. 3rd Ave.
Definitely Decided on as Site.

The Canadian Building Reports, dated August 25th., states that plans are being prepared for a new post office at Wainwright, the location for same to be at the corner of Main St. and Third Avenue. It does not state, however, when the building will be started, but the assumption is that it will be under way and completed before next year and perhaps before its beginning.

SIGN STILL REMAINS
H. C. King's big watch, which he uses as an advertising sign, still hangs on the street in front of his store. And the council from all appearances, will allow it to remain where it is.

NEW TEACHER AT SCHOOL
The school teachers have all arrived back for the Xmas term. R. B. Bryden will act as assistant to Principal McLean and Miss Bessie Parsons, who was recently engaged by the board, is taking charge of Grades 1 and 11.

Miss Edith Kibble, of Round-up, Mont., is here visiting her friend, Miss Mabel Ferrel. She will remain for a month or more before returning to her home.

Even though the stork visited his home sometime ago, Aug. 14, "Tom" Bission is still wearing a happy smile over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

THINK IT OVER AND MAKE YOUR PURCHASES FROM THE MERCHANT WHO STANDS BY WHAT HE PUTS IN PRINT

If You Walk into the Place of Business of the Man who Does not Advertise You Walk into a Blind
Alley - Read the Advertisements from those Who Tell You
Their Store News.

YOU are at the mercy of the businessman or merchant who does not advertise. When you walk into his store or place of business, you walk into a blind alley, from which they may be no escape. The man, who advertises his prices and the quality of his goods, is willing to stand back of what he has caused to be printed. The merchant who does not advertise is in no way compelled to do this. Do you pay the same price for goods you buy from both men? In some cases their prices are about the same. With the ordinary advertiser, he has something of better value to offer or he would not advertise. It is then logical to assume that a merchant who does not advertise his goods has nothing to offer in the way of bargains. Then it is policy and common sense to patronize the man who gives you his store news through the newspapers.

AWARDING OF MEDALS

School Board Seeks to Teach Children Meaning of Loyalty.

A pleasant ceremony in connection with the opening of the school yesterday morning was the flag raising and presentation of prizes in front of the building, when school children and a large number of parents and other interested parties gathered around the flag pole and paid their respects to the British ensign.

Trustee King, who was in charge of ceremonies in the absence of Chairman Dawson, first called upon Mrs. Lally to represent the Mayor in raising the flag on the halliards. This was done amid the singing of such popular and patriotic songs as Rule Britannia, The Maple Leaf Forever and God Save the King.

Rev. C. R. Corcoran was then called on by Chairman King to address the children and in an interesting and comprehensive address gave them a vivid understanding of what their patriotism should be. After a few well chosen remarks about the high mark made by several of the pupils and students at the recent examinations, Principal McLean was called upon to make the presentation of medals. He explained that the winners had made the highest marks in their respective grades at the recent departmental examinations held in Edmonton. Miss Florence Ward was then presented with a gold medal for proficiency in Grade XII; Walter King for high marks in Grade XI; Marie Mabey in VIII. Two silver medals were also presented for the best attendance for the year, these going to Walter King, and Quon Fun a Chinese lad.

After the presentation, the several trustees present were called on for short addresses, which were given by Trustees Ward and McLean. Mayor Lally also addressed the children with suitable words, and was followed by Dr. Little and Mr. H. V. Fieldhouse, the latter being recognized as one of the members of the first village school board. Their remarks dealt with the various graduations and steps the educational movement has taken in the town. They congratulated the board on its progress and hoped for its continuation. The boy scout band, which was on hand rendering suitable patriotic music, was in charge of R. B. Bryden, who being called on, said a few words for the scout movement. The local corps was referred to and the untiring efforts of Mr. King and Principal McLean, who have been in charge of the boys for the past two months, were admirably referred to. After the singing of the National Anthem the gathering dispersed and the hearts of the children, gladdened by Principal McLean allowing the younger ones to return home for the rest of the morning session.

WAINWRIGHT ALTA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3rd, 1913

THE characteristics, common to Harry Kendall Thaw and Jack Johnson, two of the worst moral degenerates being given present attention these days, is dealt with by the Edmonton News-Plaindealer in a recent issue and there is more truth than folly in what is said of the two fugitives.

Jack Johnson and Harry K. Thaw, moral degenerates and past masters in the art of high living, are receiving no little attention in the public press these days. The black giant having won notoriety and a fortune in putting out of business all other aspirants to the heavyweight championship, settled down to enjoy the fruits of his victory. Having developed only the animal in his nature, the animal passions alone sought satisfaction. In gratifying these he has descended to the lowest rungs of the ladder of degeneracy. To escape the consequences of his crime he has fled to Paris, and from that safe distance loudly protests his innocence.

Harry K. Thaw, the child of wealth and luxury, feeding his nature upon excitement and sin, found at last that there was nothing natural that could satisfy his diseased taste and resorted to every kind of grotesque invention to appease his depraved longings. The slayer of Sanford White, he has THAW AND JOHNSON been confined to an asylum TWO OF A KIND for the insane for the last six years. After repeated attempts to gain his liberty, he has, in desperation fled to Canada, only to become the inmate of a county jail until such time as he can be deported as an undesirable.

Johnson hounded from the stage of a third-rate London Music Hall, grinning his defiance upon a world that scorns him, and Thaw biting his fingers to the quick in his fevered anxiety to be permitted to live in freedom again, is modern evidence of the old-time statement: "The way of the transgressor is hard." To the unthinking there was a halo about the rough and ready life of the giant brute forging his way to a one-time popularity, and a splendor upon the gilded wickedness of the young spendthrift millionaire. Today their names are breathed in contempt.

Outside of newspaper opinion it is safe to say that the sympathy of the world was and is still with Thaw. On the other hand, everybody is tired reading about him.

There is no reason why the majority of farmers cannot do something towards cleaning up their past due notes this fall. In many cases they will be able to start a savings account.

The STAR and other agitators have done their part in advocating the completion of the rink fire tank. It now rests with no one but Providence to save the town in time of serious fires.

If cattle stealing is still going on in this district it should be stopped at once. From all reports it is obvious that smooth cattle thieves are at large carrying on their work.

Farmers of this locality have had their fill of crooks of this brand and are determined that offenders will suffer. They may not get off with as light a sentence as Luff is serving.

Tax notices will be out in a short time now and all rate-payers should bear in mind that money raised in this way can be put to many good uses about this time.

From the appearance of the tax roll as compiled by Secretary Kenny, there is not likely to be any difficulties on election day as on the STAR recalls with distinctness.

The tax roll and its compilation is a credit to Secretary Kenny. It gives the lot and block number on which a rate-payer is qualified to vote. Former tax rolls were lacking in this respect.

According to its own statement, the Grain Growers Guide is an independent organ, which is more than we are inclined to believe when we read what it says of reciprocity, Bill and Dan special privilege, etc., etc.

The railway companies are making a serious mistake in advising more harvest hands to come west. The rush being over they should be advised to come and settle in Central Alberta.

The wheat crop of forty-one wheat producing countries will amount to four billion bushels this year. If things were divided as they should be, no human being would be in want.

Unlike other towns, there is no division here over the new post office site. The corner of Main St. and Third Avenue is popular and will probably be selected finally.

An advertiser in the prize list says he will buy 2,000 dozen of fresh eggs at 25 cents per dozen. Make way for the mixed farmers, who make a specialty of the poultry end of it!

Wainwright's streets are free of any signs overhanging the sidewalks, which is perhaps a good thing. Other by-laws, equally important, should be enforced with as much vigour.

Get ready for the second annual fair and get your entries in early. Facilitate matters for all concerned by closely following the prize list and making your entries accordingly.

A Michigan editor was told to eat a copy of his paper by one whom he had criticized editorially. The editor refused and was shot dead. Why didn't he eat in public what the most of us eat, for want of something better?

The average half starved editor must be content in these hard times to digest nice, clean paper. There is much consolation, however, in realizing that winter is not far away, when a new item in the shape of snowballs will be on the menu list.

In spite of what people across the border are saying of Canada's grain crop this year, there is some satisfaction in knowing that what they say will not bring about a crop failure.

THAT FLAG STAFF

The school board is aroused over the mention made of that $95 flag pole. The school probably pinched a little and any mention of it was annoying to say the least.

And it is a common belief, almost generally, that if another flag staff was to be erected, the matter would be undertaken differently, in spite of what trustees claim was a perfectly legitimate expenditure.

The school board has in some way confounded the STAR's idea of patriotism to the Union Jack and one of its members unethically deals with the editor in another part of this issue.

Mr. King, that patriot of patriots, the champion of many a bloody battle, is the general on this occasion as well to fire the return shot into what he considers the enemy's camp.

But the supposed enemy is a loyal one, rejoicing under the same old flag that flaps in the breeze over such men as those, who compose the school board. This in explanation.

Mr. King refers to Chairman Dawson as a big, broad minded, patriotic old soul. Of course he is all this and then some. These men are to be admired and more than to the extent of $95 worth of British loyalty.

Trustee King says the editor of the STAR is the only citizen in town to begrudge $95 for the flag staff. This statement is only a piffle on Mr. King's part. There are many others who share the same popular opinion.

The expenditure being small, the STAR did not intend taking any more than passing notice of it until, by their outspoken criticism, citizens showed their disapproval.

What one citizen said, we refuse to print. His criticism was punctuated with phrases that wouldn't look nice, printed. In fact they were hot enough to melt the type.

An unwarranted and personal statement, accusing the editor, in respect to the erection of the rink, is made in the course of Mr. King's remarks. We reply in a similar sarcastic tone.

If Mr. King really was one of the ten or twelve citizens, wise enough to foresee that the rink would cost $5,000 more than the original estimate, why didn't he declare himself accordingly?

Mr. King has generally taken a stand on all matters of public import. He didn't on the rink question. Therefore, it ill becomes him to criticize those who had better nerve than he, but, who willingly admit a fault.

Somewhere within Mr. King's stubborn but patriotic casing, there must surely be a feeling that $95 was too much for his cherished flag staff. Otherwise he is blinded by the blaze of burning, fiery patriotism.

After all, the feeling behind this $95 expenditure was one to admire. The school board had a good motive in view but didn't realize how much it would cost to uncover the loyal feeling.

So really patriotic is Mr. King in detesting the board that he couldn't help say that the financial stringency was passed "with flying colours". That is a true British expression.

And yet 'tis well to be a flag flapper, when it doesn't cost too much. Hats off to such patriots as Mr. King, who would rather impoverish themselves than be without that feeling of loyalty to the dear old British flag.

PRICE OF WHEAT AND RECIPROcity

What Good Would American Markets Have Been to Canada This Past Year?

Winnipeg wheat prices have been as much as ten cents a bushel above the Minneapolis quotations for the same grade of grain. Either there is a glut of wheat on the United States market, and, therefore, no market for Canadian wheat there, or Minneapolis cannot hold a candle to Winnipeg as a transfer market to the ultimate European consumer. In truth, there is an abundance of port conditions. There is assuredly no market for Canadian wheat for consumption in the United States. The country exports too much of its own wheat to permit of that. And, with absolute equality at the European port of entry, there is a big advantage in favor of Canada as the point of exit. Reciprocity would not have mended our market, but marred it.

During 1911-12 a revival of United States exports of wheat and wheat as flour took place, which has continued into the year just closing. A year ago these amounted to 73,691,404 bushels, and for the ten months to date this crop year they have totalled 121,000,000 bushels. Assuming that the last two months of this year will witness proportional exports, the total for the year will be about 146,000,000 bushels. This is considerably heavier than any year since 1907-08. The trade has yet to learn what 1912-13 will bring, and it promises to break all records and to make the United States less than ever a market for Canadian wheat.

Commenting upon the proposal in the United States Senate to free-trade Canadian wheat, The St. Paul Pioneer Press of May 28th said: "The American millers do not want the duty on wheat. The American farmer does not need it. Despite the efforts made by some politicians to convince him that they are doing him a favor by insisting on protection, the farmer will not worry about competition with wheat that was selling in Winnipeg yesterday at 97½¢ while the high point in Minneapolis, yesterday was 91½¢." For a year past Western Canadian wheat prices have generally ruled higher than Western American wheat prices, and this year the United States is going to have an avalanche of wheat for export.

PULP AND PAPER

An Industry Which Has Grown Rapidly in Canada

According to the Toronto Globe, up to three or four years ago the pulp and paper industry of Quebec received little attention from the business world. Previous to that time all the big mills on the continent were located south of the border, and the smaller Canadian mills operating in a less remunerative field, were unable to make much headway. Careless methods of cutting and the heavy demands made upon the American forests practically exhausted their available supplies of pulpwood and they turned to Canada. For years American millowners were allowed to take out pulpwood from Quebec without let or hindrance. Some two or three years ago Sir Lomer Gouin put into force a measure prohibiting the exportation of pulpwood cut from Crown lands, which proved to be the beginning of the wonderful expansion of this industry. American manufacturers, knowing that they could not get pulpwood from Quebec crossed the border, bought up limits and located their mills on this side of the line. In one year following the passing of the measure no less than nineteen pulp, paper and lumber companies were incorporated in Quebec, with a total capitalization of $41,708,000. This capital came largely from the United States, Great Britain and France, although Canadians contributed a considerable amount. Last year several of the newly-incorporated mills commenced production, while during 1913 a large number of others will commence active manufacturing. Of 1,546,910 cords of pulpwood cut in Canada during the past year, 866,042 cords were manufactured into pulp in Canadian mills, while 680,868 cords were exported in the raw or unmanufactured state. The total cut for 1913 shows an increase of 21½ per cent. over the figures for 1911, while the increase in the manufacture of pulpwood in Canada amounted to nearly 29 per cent., as compared with an increase in our exports of raw pulpwood of less than 17 per cent.

THE WISE MAN Does not buy his lumber on the basis of price only. He realizes that it is not so much what he pays, but what he gets for what he pays, that counts.

As one of our customers remarked the other-day the first cost is not the last cost.

There are many "hooks" in the lumber business, we have none baited. In no other line, perhaps, do you rely so strongly on the honesty of the dealer.

Ask our customers what sort of treatment they get at this yard.

NEW CITY, OBJIBWAY.
TO BE SECOND GARY

New York American Explains How
Canada Has Secured Great
Steel Industry

A Detroit despatch to The New York American reads:

"When the heads of the United States Steel Corporation learned a couple of years ago that the reciprocity agreement which the Taft Administration had negotiated with Canada had been defeated by a referendum vote in Canada, they came to Detroit and picked out a spot across the river in Canada, where they could advantageously manufacture and ship steel, and bought it. They have begun work on the construction of a second Gary there. A community of some 75,000 population, and named Objibway, will be built up there within three or four years."

"Had the reciprocity pact been ratified that city would have been on the American side of the Detroit River, the labor would have been American. The supplies for this labor would have broadened the market of the American farmers who opposed reciprocity."

"The United States Steel Corporation wanted to sell its steel in Canada and was prevented by the Canadian tariff. It wanted to buy ore and raw materials in Canada and was prevented by the American tariff. It desired the best facilities for shipping to Canadian ports and all over the world by water. It had been contemplating building a plant on the Detroit side of the river. Agents had looked over the ground below the city, in the vicinity of the big ship building plants, and had practically decided to buy there. The Detroit River forms the best harbor on the Great Lakes, completely sheltered, yet large enough and deep enough to permit the free passage and maneuvering of the largest steamships. The steel corporation had its plans already made, when the reciprocity pact went to vote. When it found there was to be no reciprocity it just moved across the river."

GRAIN GROWERS' GUIDE

Its Editorial View Does Not Commit
Western Grain Growers

In a recent letter to the press Mr. F. W. Green, himself a prominent member of one of the Grain Growers' associations, declares that the Grain Growers' Guide does not represent the views of the Grain Growers' associations. He says:

"What I wish to point out to our readers is, first, that the Guide is not an Association organ. It is a private concern owned and operated in the interests of a private company; in so far as the Saskatchewan Grain Growers is concerned, we do not share in the financial losses or profits of the Guide. The association has not and never has had anything whatever to do with the conduct or tone of the editorial columns of the Guide, either on the naval, reciprocity, free trade, sample market, elevator or any other question. The views expressed in the editorial columns of the Guide may be one thing. The views of the Manitoba association, as expressed in their section of the Guide, may or may not be the same thing. The Alberta association may express another view, and the Saskatchewan association still something different to any of them. The Guide can only claim to be an association paper in so far as it permits the associations to set forth their views in the columns which are supposed to be conducted by representatives belonging to the associations. . . . No one has any right to charge the associations with views expressed in the editorial columns of the Grain Growers' Guide."

ALL PROTECTIONISTS

Both Parties Against Free Trade in Australia

The Labor Government which was defeated in Australia has for years maintained a protective tariff for revenue producing purposes and the benefit of domestic industries and workmen. On the eve of polling the Liberal leader of the Opposition, Sir Joseph Cook, abandoned Free Trade and committed himself to Protection. Speaking for the party The Melbourne Argus said: "The Liberal undertaking is to maintain the present protective policy. No amount of dishonest argument or word-twisting can construe this into meaning that the present tariff is to be amended by them in the direction of Free Trade."

A Winnipeg despatch reads: "Winnipeg's Industrial Bureau Commission of states that never has there been greater interest shown in Canada by American manufacturers than in the present year. He has received enquiries from firms manufacturing a hundred different commodities with a view to locating here."

BETTER VALUES

Watch this space next week for announcement of our Fall & Winter millinery openings. Our stock will be bigger and better than in previous seasons.

DEAR MR. GRAIN GROWER The harvesting season is here again, and we wish to call your attention to our standing as a reliable Grain Commission firm ready to be of service to you in disposing of your grain at the highest possible market price. The way to make the most money in marketing your grain is to load over the platform into cars and ship direct to Fort William or Port Arthur; then have the same sold on commission on the Winnipeg market. We make a specialty of this side of the grain business, and being a firm in good repute, with many satisfied customers, we are confident it will be to your advantage to send us your shipping bills with selling instructions. We are prepared to advance money immediately on receipt of shipping bills. We watch the market closely and always endeavor to sell on a bulge so as to give our clients the benefit of the highest price going. On receipt of sample we will grade your grain free of charge, and on request will send our weekly market letter showing the tendency and conditions of the grain market. If you have enough grain to make a carload don't fail to write for information. Yours very truly
